Be a supportive and engaging parent

Codes of Behaviour

You don't need to know about Netball to be a supportive and engaged parent.

- If children are interested, encourage and support them to play.
- Encourage children to play to the rules and respect umpires' decisions.
- Applaud good play by players on both teams.
- Teach children that effort is as important as victory, so that the result of each game is accepted without undue disappointment.
- Lead by example
- Children learn by taking risks and making mistakes, so encourage and support this.
- Remember children are involved in netball for their enjoyment.
- Recognise and value the importance of coaches and other volunteers who give their time and resources to provide Netball.
